All Beltin Group courses are based on delivering currency, competence and capability. Please contact us directly to discuss tailoring instruction to meet your specific requirements.

Both professionals in the field of motor vehicle driving instruction and close personal protection have designed the Protective Driving Package.

Four courses are provided by Beltin Group as a foundation to developing skills and knowledge of safe motor vehicle driving.

Self Drive, 3 days – the aim of this course is to provide awareness, skills and knowledge to those that self drive in environments of risk. This includes instruction and practical tuition in accident avoidance, defensive driving and driver attitude.

Protective Driver, 5 days – the aim of this course is to provide those employed in Protective Driving duties with the knowledge and skills to function as Protective Drivers in fluid risk environments of varying and challenging environments domestically and internationally.

Offensive Driver, 3 days (Government only) – (pre-requisite Protective Driver) the aim of this course is to provide those employed in Protective Driving duties with specialist offensive skills and knowledge to react and defeat actions of threat in fluid risk environments.

Instructor Protective Driver – the aim of this course is to qualify those employed in Protection Instruction with trade specific certification as Protective Driving Instructors and continuation trainers.

Beltin Group is an investigation and protection firm providing consultancy, training and operational services to public and private entities in pursuit of business success across domestic and international markets of risk and uncertainty.
